

I use my XM radio for traffic and weather reports. This is the most dependable medium available to me for this information especially when I am traveling. Please do not prohibit XM radio from making these broadcasts available to its members.